

Ashley Postlewaite

EO Los Angeles
YEO President, FY2004/2005

Ashley Postlewaite was elected the 15th YEO International President.

HIGHLIGHTS

- In June, YEO and WEO International partnered with the MIT Enterprise Forum to introduce the MIT/WEO Advanced Business Program, a specialized learning program. This new, two-year program was facilitated by Verne Harnish and specially designed for WEO members. The inaugural four-day program brought together 50 entrepreneurs, each of whom was a company founder over age 40 whose business grosses at least US$1 million annually.
- The Los Angeles University was held from 11-15 August, 2004.
- The European Conference was held in Munich, Germany from 7-10 October, 2004. Chairperson of the conference was Daniel Wild. Highlights included a private EO Oktoberfest.
- The LAC Conference was held in Panama from 20-23 January, 2005 for approximately 100 members and guests. Chairperson of the conference was Fernando Duque, and the keynote speaker was Steve Little ("The Business Growth Expert").
- Nancye Miller was hired in February 2005 as the new CEO, following Brien Biondi's departure in August 2004.
- The first of two GLC's was held in Kuala Lumpur from 12-14 May, 2005 for 124 members. Chairperson of the event was Stuart Chrisp. The second GLC was held in Washington, District of Columbia, USA from 19-21 May.
- Birthing of Giants Years 1-3 met in Dedham, Massachusetts, USA.
- The Aspen Family Conference was held 28 June – 1 July, 2005. Chaired by Marsha Ralls, this event provided the perfect opportunity to network with members while enjoying an educational and enriching family event.