TR Moore & Company Among 25 Largest Houston Accounting Firms

HOUSTON – Aug. 17, 2012 – TR Moore & Company, the Houston location of top 75 U.S. CPA firm Doeren Mayhew, has improved its ranking among the largest certified public accounting firms in Houston, jumping from 25th to 21st on the Houston Business Journal's annual list.

“We are coursing through our growth strategy, with double-digit revenue growth, progress toward new business goals and sustained relationships with our existing client base,” said Houston Managing Partner Tim Moore. “A 96 percent satisfaction rating in our most recent client survey tells us we are meeting client needs and continuing to deliver on our promise to provide insight, oversight and foresight for their businesses.”

In 2010, TR Moore & Company merged with Doeren Mayhew to combine the strengths of both firms. The merger has provided Houston businesses with access to a larger audit practice, enhanced international capabilities and deeper experience across more industries.

“Over the past two years, TR Moore & Company and Doeren Mayhew have slowly and carefully brought our companies together,” Moore said. “It was important to preserve the best practices of both so our clients would continue to have a seamless, world-class experience. As we maintain a focus on growth, we look forward to continuing to go beyond the traditional accounting firm model for our clients, while also bringing them the benefits of working with a top 75 firm.”
